NUMB. 3266

MONDAY, JUNE 4, 1744.

Since our last arriv'd the Mails due from Flanders.

Moscow, April 30.

HE Danish Ambassador, M. de Holstein, is become a very great Favourite at Court; and it is believed, that the Negotiation with which he is charged, for compromising the Differences between his Danish Majesty and the House of Holstein, is far advanced. There is a Negotiation on the Tapis, which is believed relate to Germany; where her Majesty thinks it for Interest to have such a Force, as may render her Intervention in the Affairs of Europe respected. The Mi- lately dispatched to the Court of Prussia, has In- structions to engage, if possible, his Prussian Majesty to cede to the Treaty lately concluded between this Court and that of Dresden; whereas it is apprehended, that his Prussian Majesty would be better pleased, if this Court should accede to the Treaty lately concluded by that Court with the Crown of Sweden.

Turin, May 16. His Majesty has a Body of 4000 Regular Troops at Oneglia, 1000 Militia, and 150 Despe- rados from Sardinia; where they have been banished for different Crimes. We place our chief Confidence, how- ever, in the English Fleet, which is gone to block up the Ports of Provence, as heretofore; which if they effect, the combined Army must soon moulder away here, between hard Duty, and Scarcity of Pro- visions; which it is certain they must endure, unless they can receive them from France. We have private Intelligence from Genoa, that the Senate takes every Method possible of assisting, under-hand, the Army of the two Crowns; which is supposed to be owing, chiefly, to the Dread they are under from Admiral Mat- thews's Fleet. Prince Doria declared publickly, that it was thought would inspire his Countrymen with Cou- rage, he would fire his own Palace with his own Hand; that he had rather see it in Ashes, than be threaten'd every Morning with a Bombardment. This Moment a Courier is arrived with Advice, that the Prince of Conti and Don Philip have order'd Quarters to be pro- vided for 8000 Men, that are speedily expected from Barcelona. As soon as this Reinforcement arrives, the combined Army will quit their Quarters of Canton- ment; and therefore we expect, with the utmost Im- patience, the Succours which have been demanded with so much Earnestness of the Austrians. The Moment his Majesty received Advice that the Prince of Conti had released the Piedmontese Prisoners on their Parole, he sent Orders to Mondori, to discharge the French Pri- soners directly.

Franckfort, June 3. The Emperor is pretty well re- covered of the Gout; and this Morning three Persons arrived, under an Escort of Palatine Dragoons, from Strasburg, who are said to have brought in their Port- manteaus 500,000 Florins in Gold. It is reported here, that the French will not join the Imperialists this Cam- paign. According to some private Letters from the French Army, his most Christian Majesty gives greater Satisfaction to the People, and the Soldiers, than to his Ministers, or Generals. He visited the Trenches once; but went several Times to the Hospitals, where he de- sired the Surgeons, for his Sake, to take care of the poor People; and ordered they should have the same Bread that was brought to his own Table. He has more than once intimated, that he could not believe the Mi- series of War were so great as he sees them to be; and, on all Occasions, recommends it to the Officers to spare the Soldiers as much as possible. In a Word, it does not appear that he is of a very Martial Disposition.

Vienna, May 27. An Accident that happened very lately, alarmed the Court much. An Agent from the City of Nurenburg, in the Instant that he presented a Memorial to her Majesty, dropp'd down at her Feet in a Fit of an Apoplexy. The Queen gave Orders that all imaginable Care should be taken of him, in which she was exactly obeyed, but to no Purpose; for he expir'd the next Morning, without speaking a single Word. Her Majesty, to give a good Example, has dismissed all the French Servants in her Court, and particularly two of her Cooks; but, at the same Time, ordered that they should have a Year's Wages to carry them Home. We apprehend, that notwithstanding the pacifick Declara- tions, the French and Imperialists intend to besiege Mentz; which if they should attempt, Prince Charles of Lorrain, with the Army under his Command, will undoubtedly give them Battle. The necessary Measures will be taken, to furnish the King of Sardinia with the Succours he has demanded, without weakning the Army of Prince Lobkowitz; who has Orders to make a Con- quest of the Kingdom of Naples, and thereby put an End to the War in Italy, this Campaign.

Berlin, June 2. The King of Prussia is to set out from Pyrmont on the 10th Instant, to return to Pots- dam, or this Place. Count Teslin, the Swedish Minister, arrived here on Sunday last.

Bruffels, June 8. Menin surrendred to the Enemy the 4th Instant, which was the fourth Day from the open- ing of the Trenches before it. The French King took Possession of the Place the same Night. We have dif- ferent Reports now as to the Motions of the French, some assuring that their whole Army is marched to- wards Ypres, and others, that they have sent a Detach- ment of 40,000 Men towards Tournay. We have Ad- vice from Italy, that Prince Lobkowitz has passed the Tyber, so that we may soon expect to hear of his en- gaging the Neapolitan Army, which lies in the Neighbourhood of Tivoli.

Ostend, June 11. The Garison of Menin marched by Bruges on Tuesday last with two Field Pieces, two Mortars, six cover'd Waggons, Drums beating, and Co- lours flying. All Accounts agree, that they lost but four Men, and the Besiegers Forty. On Saturday the French invested Ypres, in which there is a Garison of 3000 Men.

Hague, June 5. The single Thing that retards the immediate March of the second Corps of 20,000 Men, is the following Representation from the States of Friezland, delivered to the States General by their De- puties.

'Messieurs, the Deputies of the Province of Friez- 'land, in Consequence of express Orders, inform the 'Assembly, that the Lords States, their High Principals, 'having demanded for his Highness the Prince of Orange 'and Nassau, their Hereditary Stadtholder, and Captain- 'General, the Generalship of the Foot, in Rank agreeable 'to his high Birth, and to the important Employment 'he enjoys in their Province, &c. with extreme Dis- 'pleasure, their just and reasonable Instances, made in 'so friendly a Manner, and so often repeated, not fruit- 'less only, and without Effect, but rejected also, in the 'coarsest, and most shocking Manner; which Beha- 'viour, so opposite to Decency and Friendship, hath 'quite tired out the Patience of the Lords States, their 'Principals. That, at length, they find themselves un- 'der a Necessity of instructing, and ordering their De- 'puties, to declare in their Name to this Assembly, as 'Messieurs, their Deputies, do by these Presents, That 'if they do not afford immediate Satisfaction to their 'Noble Mightinesses, by naming his Serene Highness 'General of the Foot, and employing him as Com- 'mander in Chief of the second Corps of Troops, 'formed for the Defence of the Republick, they are 'resolved to retract the Consent they have given to the 'late Measures, in every Respect, excepting only to the 'State of War. The said Sieurs, Deputies, inasmuch 'as this Affair touches them so nearly, most earnestly 'intreat those of the Allies, who hitherto have refused 'to comply with the just and reasonable Demands of 'the Lords States, their Principals, to reflect on the 'present delicate and critical Conjuncture of Affairs, 'so as to avoid the dreadful Consequences that must 'attend Delays; and which all impartial People will at- 'tribute to them, and them only, in case they persist 'in the Refusal.'

HOME PORTS.

Deal, June 1. Wind N. E. Yesterday Afternoon his Majesty's Ship the Squirrel sailed to the Westward, with the Outward-bound. Came down, and remains, the Sa- lamander Privateer.

Deal, June 2. Wind N. N. E. Yesterday Afternoon his Majesty's Ship Stafford went to the Back of the Good- win Sand, for Portsmouth; and the Salamander Priva- teer sail'd to the Westward.

Arrived

At Leghorn, the ——, Johannes, from Mounts Bay, and the Hunter, Ravenstyne, from Middleburg.

At Virginia, the John, Watson, from London.

LONDON.

According to some private Letters from Brussels, it is apprehended, that the Duke de Harcourt, who oc- cupies, at present, the Camp at Malplaquet, actually in- tends to invest Mons.

Prince Lobkowitz seems determined to push the War in the Kingdom of Naples at all Events; and it is be- lieved the next Mail will bring us an Account of a Battle.

The French East-India Company are about to make a Sale of a prodigious Quantity of Price Goods, which were brought Home in May last by the Duke of Or- leans and the Phenix; as also of near 1,000,000 Pounds of Coffee, of the Growth of the Isle of Bourbon.

His Majesty's Ship the Kennington, has taken, and car- ried into Leghorn, the Salvator, Capt. Vintres, from Smyrna; and the Providence, Martin, from Cyprus, both bound to France.

On Friday the Right Hon. the Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham went down the River in his Barge, and in the Afternoon called on board his Majesty's Ship Suffolk, Capt. Pratten, Commander. At his Lo dship's going away, they saluted him with 19 Guns.

Last Friday died, at his House at Stangate in Surrey, Mr. King, a great Builder. He was the Person that made the Timber Work for turning the Arches of the new Bridge at Westminster.

Saturday Morning, about 9 o'Clock, a young Woman, who came to the Bear Inn in Picadilly, from Hereford, in Company with two others, in order to get Services, was decoy'd into a House of ill Repute in Ayre's-street, ad- joining to a Timber Yard, by a Creature who pretended to help her to a Place immediately. The other two waiting for her a considerable Time, and she not re- turning, made Enquiry for her, but not being produced, a great Mob gather'd, who broke the Windows, and stripp'd the House. The House was search'd Yesterday, and several Trap Doors discovered, but the young Wo- man is not yet found.

The Bawd, with some others, were taken up, in or- der to be examined before a Justice.

Last Saturday a Dispensation passed the Great Seal, to enable Richard Holmes, M. A. Chaplain to the Right Hon. John Boyle, Earl of Glasgow, to hold the Vicarage of Ottery St. Mary, in the County of Devon, together with the Rectory of Gittisham, in the said County.

The same Day a Duplicate pass'd the Great Seal unto John Couraud, of the Office of Clerk of the Navy- Office of York-River and Virginia, in America.

As did likewise a Presentation to the Rev. Mr. Wil- liam Cope Hopton, to the Vicarage of Frome Canonicorum, alias, Canfrome, in the County of Hereford.

Last Saturday, about 4 o'Clock, a Carpenter's Appren- tice, who was employed in pulling down some Houses in Mercer's Court in Bartholomew-lane, behind the Royal Exchange, joining to the Bank, leaning against a Window Frame in the Garret, it gave Way, and the Lad fell backwards into the Court, and broke both his Legs. He was let Blood by a neighbouring Surgeon, who sent him to the Hospital, but it is thought he cannot live.

The Dead Warrant is come to Newgate for Wyton and Cole to be executed on Friday next.

From the London Gazette.

Whitehall, June 2. The King has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Robert Lambe, Doctor of Laws, the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, void by the Promotion of Dr. John Thomas, late Dean thereof, to the See of Lincoln.

Dr. ROBERT EATON's BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a surprizing Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoidal Vessels; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding (if large Wounds, if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates; therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine, but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in his Valuable Piece, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Diseases of the Body, &c. prefers EATON's STYPTICK to Helvetius and other Stypticks; and speaks of it as follows:—'I know the agglutinating Quality of sweet Blood, and apprehend it is to this, that EATON's Styptick owes its mild, soldering Efficacy.—It is more mild, [illegible] and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparation, and more to patch a Hole, or glew up a Rupture, or to give Ballast to the acrid and inflam'd flowing Blood of the Piles. He says, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great Worth and Candor, who has great Opportunities of [illegible] Cases, by his Practice in Midwifery. See p. 180.'

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and incurable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their most violent Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured of [illegible] it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Humour on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness [illegible] on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the Frenzy, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breaking, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, is overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be speak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have found their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Infection, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it assure themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and every other Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. [illegible]'s Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. [illegible] Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Poison may perfectly understand their own Condition, and exactly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Cure.
